

NUMBER 144

2006

Proceedings

The Proceedings is published by:
The Japan Society
Swire House
59 Buckingham Gate
London SW1E 6AJ

Tel: 020 7828 6330
Fax: 020 7828 6331
e-mail: info@japansociety.org.uk
website: www.japansociety.org.uk

Executive Director:
Robert Guy

Lectures & Proceedings Chairman:
Timon Screech

Editor:
David Powers

Managing Editor:
Clare Barclay

ISSN 0952-2050

Copyright © 2006: The Japan Society and individual contributors. Views expressed in the Proceedings are those of the authors and are not necessarily shared by The Japan Society. Material printed in the Proceedings must not be reproduced without permission.

CONTENTS

- 3 A Time of Change and Challenge
- 5 The Council
- 6 Sponsors and Benefactors
- 7 Corporate Members 2006
- 11 Sir John Whitehead honoured by Japanese Government
- 16 Library Treasures on Display
- 20 Japan Society Awards 2006
- 22 Obituaries
- 30 Year in Review

LECTURES

- 42 Trafalgar, Tsushima and Onwards: Japan and the Decisive Naval Battles of the Twenty-First Century
To mark the bicentenary of the Battle of Trafalgar, an assessment by Geoffrey Till of the impact of decisive sea battles on the psyches of Britain and Japan, and how they shape current policy.
(2005 Cortazzi Lecture)
- 58 Japanese Aid: A Historical Perspective
Toshiyuki Iwama, Japan International Cooperation Agency chief representative in the UK, on the changing focus of Japanese aid.
- 68 Bank of Japan's New Policy Framework after Quantitative Easing
The Deputy Governor of the Bank of Japan Kazumasa Iwata on the thinking behind the central bank's monetary policy as the zero-interest rate policy came to an end.

CONTENTS (continued)

76 Japan in 2005 – the View from the Embassy

Review of the year by Sir Graham Fry, UK Ambassador in Tokyo.

80 The Lost Values of Showa

Dutch banker and author, Hans Brinckmann, looks back at the changing values of post-war Japan with the keen eye of a long-term resident.

90 The Nationalization of Manga

Sharon Kinsella analyzes the strange journey of comic books for adults from a margins of acceptable culture to the mainstream.

102 Charles Holme (1848-1923) – Victorian Entrepreneur

Toni Huberman traces the life of a founder member of the Japan Society and an influential figure in the arts and crafts movement of the early twentieth century.

114 The Influence of Japanese Art on the Work of Frank Brangwyn

Libby Horner appraises the art of key figure in the revival of printmaking in the early 1900s, whose bold plans for a museum of Western art in Tokyo sadly never came to fruition.

126 Japan and the Royal Art

Pauline Chakmakjian on the origins of Freemasonry in Britain and how it spread to Japan through Dutch and British connections.

139 Donations to the Japan Society Library

140 Membership Figures