

Kamishibai: Summarising Stories

© The Japan Society with Laura Boddy (2020)

Story Outline – When writing an outline or summary of a story, list the main points for each section of the story. Remember, only give the most important information!

Beginning – How did the story start?

Draw a picture of the main character

Middle – What was the main event? Where did it take place? Who was involved?

End – How did it end? What was the resolution?
