

Manga 'Style'

Minimal nose detail,
focus on eyes.

Round, big eyes = key for facial expression

Cartoon style

manga Style

American Comic style

Cartoon = the most
simplistic style

Often more detailed,
but less
range of facial expression.

The word 'Chibi' in Japanese means 'small' - but the concept of 'Chibi style' in relation to Manga was a Western invention.

When Manga characters
express 'extreme' emotion, such as panic, or anger, they are often
drawn in mini, 'cute'
style known as
"chibi" style.
