

CALENDER, Jane

Jane is a specialist in making shibori resist dyed textiles with indigo, natural and fibre reactive dyes. She is also highly experienced in hand-stitched resists and techniques including machine stitching, fold and clamp techniques 'itajime', cylinder wrapping, bo maki and arashi shibori, wrapping and binding techniques on natural fibre fabric, i.e. cotton, linen, silk, as well as heat set techniques for 3D outcomes. Jane is an experienced teacher, having delivered workshops for schools, adult education guilds, private groups, and at degree level.

In 2003 she began her company, Callishibori, which produces educational packs enabling others to create shibori. Her stencils are an innovative addition to the field. She continues to build up the business, introducing kits and new products for mail order. She has written two books, one on pattern making, '2000 Pattern combinations – a step by step guide to creating pattern' and 'Stitched Shibori – technique, innovation, design, pattern.'
