

PERRIN Suzanne BA (Hons); MA

Specialist in Japanese History, Art & Culture; other subjects include Chinese and Western History of Art

Lectured at Richmond American International University in London for over ten years; visiting lecturer at University of Brighton Art & Design School, Huron University USA in London, and University of Cape Town, S.Africa. Lectures for British Museum and the V&A Asian Arts course, universities, schools and The Arts Society (NADFAS) in UK and Europe.

Studied Nihonga (traditional Japanese painting) at Nagoya University of Arts Japan, 1986-87. Made regular visits to Japan for research, and conducted guided tours of Japan for students and adult groups.

Started Japan Interlink in 1995 to promote cultural and educational exchange between Japan and the UK, organising Japanese cultural events in UK and setting up student exchange programmes between universities in Japan and the UK. Promoted Japanese culture on TV and radio, on BBC's 'Women's Hour' and on local radio stations in Australia and Cape Town S.Africa. Lectured in South Africa for DARTS in 2002, visiting all main cities in SA. Contributed lectures on Japanese History, Culture and Arts to University of Cape Town's summer school programme in 2003 and 2004, and in 2007. 2009 and 2025.

Co-authored Bridges:Anglo-Japanese Cultural Pioneers 1945 – 2015 published in 2016 with Jeremy Hoare.