Haiku – Fragments and Phrases

Read the haiku below with your partner. Identify the fragments and phrases for each haiku.

a bright breeze

dandelions just higher

than the grass

(by Paul Conneally)

---

a thief

vanishes over the rooftops

night chill!

(by Yosa Buson)

---

picnic in the shade

two large koi passing

under a lily

(by Paul Conneally)

---

Remember: there may be more than one fragment in each haiku.
Phrases usually run over two lines.