

NUMBER 145

2007

Proceedings

CONTENTS

Proceedings is published by

The Japan Society

Swire House

59 Buckingham Gate

London SW1E 6AJ

Tel: 020 7828 6330

Fax: 020 7828 6331

Email: info@japansociety.org.uk

Website: www.japansociety.org.uk

Director:

Heidi Potter

Editor:

David Powers

Managing Editor:

Clare Barclay

ISSN 0952-2050

Copyright © 2007: The Japan Society and individual contributors. Views expressed are those of the authors, and are not necessarily shared by the Japan Society. Material printed in the Proceedings must not be reproduced without permission.

- 3 From the Editor
- 4 A Fuller Programme in Prospect as the Japan Society and Japan 21 Merge
- 6 Society Organization and Benefactors
- 8 Japan Society Awards 2007
- 10 Obituaries
- 16 Japan Society Year in Review

LECTURES

- 26 View from the Embassy in Tokyo
Sir Graham Fry, UK Ambassador in Tokyo, gives his assessment of the Japanese domestic scene and Anglo-Japanese relations in 2006
- 34 Koizumi and his Political Legacy
Arthur Stockwin looks back over five years of Japan under Prime Minister Koizumi—and considers the administration's successes and weak points
- 56 East Asian Community: Dream and Reality
Hirotosugu Koike explains from the viewpoint of a journalist experienced in foreign affairs why the dream of an East Asian community remains so elusive

- 68 Emergency Procedures in the UK—Learning from the Past
The Head of Civil Contingencies in the Cabinet Office, Bruce Mann, gives an insight into the thinking behind the British government's plans for dealing with emergencies
- 77 Lessons from the Eighties in Setting up an Investment Banking Operation in Japan—what has Changed?
The Chairman of the Japan Society, Christopher Purvis, looks back on his experience of helping establish a western financial services operation in Tokyo in the 1980s, and considers how much—if anything—has changed
- 87 Falling Blossom—the English Officer and the Japanese Woman he Loved
Bundles of letters found in Tokyo reveal a tragic love story spanning two world wars, as pieced together by Peter Pagnamenta and Momoko Williams
- 105 Kano Sansetsu and the Song of Everlasting Sorrow
Shane McCausland, Curator of the East Asian Collections at the Chester Beatty Library in Dublin, examines the Chinese influences on a seventeenth century master painter
- 124 The Adoption and Adaptation of the Pole Star Deity by Samurai and Townspeople in Pre-modern Japan
Meri Arichi explains the influence of the personification of the Pole Star, whose devotees included the woodblock artist, Hokusai
- 136 Ocean Islands and Mass Extinctions: the Fossil Record of Japan
Richard Twitchett finds fascinating parallels between a catastrophic event 250 million years ago and current concern about global warming
- 142 Contributors